A Card to the Fubile.—a calcing to Acquaint the public with a few facts relative to the HEW YORK FIGATONE we shave hit upon the nove idea of advertising. First, we wish to state that Mr. John 'rougham is now engaged as a regular contributor to the columns of the New York Fleavyne. Mr. Brougham, as a wit author and actr, needs no commendation from as here, and we are unwil ing to give it, as it costs us twenty five cents see line. Secondly, we beg to estate that we have permanently orgaged the pen of the lovey. Ifvery and asreastic Hell Thorne, whose contributions, we will say, if it should cost fifty cents per line have created a greater see sauton among the 49 000 readers of the Picavuse than have sony lay's writings in the country for years. Thirdly, we add that the greatest a merican carrieaturist, Mr. Frank tiel ow, who has no equal on this yide of the Atantic, and whose steeless in Punch, forwarded from here are among the best in it, is now our principal artist. Finally, that the Picavuse is the oldest and most original comic paper in America—original in shape, style and contents, and is bestfest the chappen il nutrated paper in the world. It is an imitation of nothing, foreign or domestic, and it is fearless in opiaion, and dread-inly sausy in expressing it.
